Dear Smt. and Prof.Krishna Rao,

I think I had the occasion to witness the splendid performance youhavgened to display at Delhi last year, when the Karnataka Sangha of Delhi organised a big show, over which Hon'ble Shri R.D..iwakar, Governor of Bihar, presided. The explanation you gave in of the different poses in the dance is still fresh in my memory and since that day I have been watching dance recitals with greater interest.

Dear Srimati & Sriman Krishna Rao,

'Namaste'

Thank you very much for giving my children and me an opportunity to participate in a very fine show as spectators.

Believe me, it was fine! I never knew that a man's pxx powerful imagination could be so smoothly translated into rhythm! and a mother could look like a sweet sixteen and present an all out sincere programme of sheer grace! God Bless you two. I was so overwhelmed with joy that I simply could not come over to you with "spoken word items". I wanted to do something more substantial to use "that which is mightier than the sword' and express as humbly but as permanently as possible my heartfelt and most sincere appreciation.
